MARTIN COLLEGE

PULASKI, TENNESSEE

FOREWORD

With fondest hopes that we may make the colors more vivid in your rainbow of memories for the coming years, and, in order that, when your mind returns with thoughts of yesteryears, this annual may be as a glowing ember, quiescent as long as it is undisturbed, but full of sparks
of realism when the breath of thought is breathed upon it, we present this
"MARTINAIRE" for the school year 1953-54.

DEDICATION

To the listening ear, the hearty laugh, the ready handshake, the bubbling personality, the devoted interest in his fellowman, the guidance and wise counseling which he has so freely given to the searching minds of the youth of Martin College.

To one who has projected himself into every activity of the school and has inspired a new outlook upon life to many with whom he has come in contact. We, the MARTINAIRE Staff of 1954, wish to dedicate this annual to C. Glenn Mingledorff, Administrative Dean of Martin College.

ADMINISTRATION

To Students, Faculty and Friends of Martin College:

This year at Martin College has been a "student year" to an unusual degree. Since students are the most important thing about any college, this is good.

The dormitories have been filled to capacity with students who have come from twenty-four Tennessee counties; Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, and Virginia; and from Colombia, Cuba, Greece and Korea. The day-students have been, as always, as fully a part of the College as those who live on the campus.

The loyal and cooperative spirit of the students has been the major factor in their own high morale. In studies, athletics, chorus trips, dramatics, entertaining of college guests, worship, and recreation, this high morale has been evident.

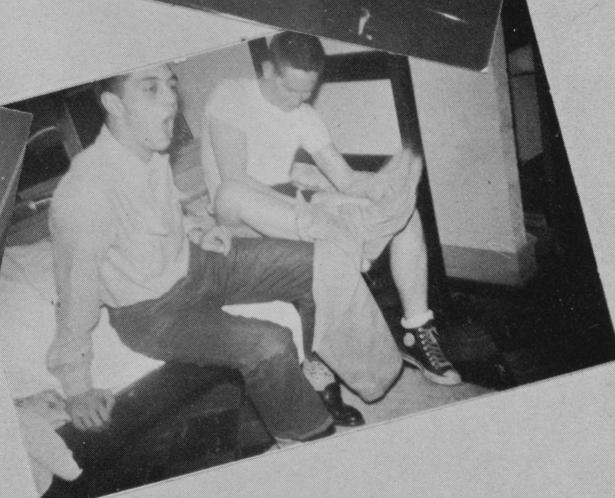

We wish for the graduates of 1954 every success in their continued study or in their new jobs, and happiness in their living. We wish for the juniors a pleasant and/or profitable vacation, and we look forward to another year with them in study and play, and in work together in building a larger and stronger college.

Sincerely,

Joseph D. Quillian, Jr.
JOSEPH D. QUILLIAN, JR.
President

DEPARTURE SONG

We are young and ever trying to be mature in thought and deed. The friends we seek, the prayers we feel, the words we speak, and the books we read—all are manifestations of our desire: we would lift and be lifted from the mire of limitation.

Another day we would be free of all but youthful recreation and delight, and purposely we cast away the night of all we cannot comprehend, and stand laughing and healthy in our "place in the sun," and we have fun.

We have spent our college days being God-self and pygmy-self, and learning which is better, and why. We have known the screaming sound of the gymnasium, the holiness of vespers, the book-smell of the library, and the amazement of newly learned lessons.

We have known the beauty of Pulaski in the springtime, and the pleasant kind of bedlam in the recreation rooms. The chorus trips, and midnight jam-sessions have been ours. "The Pine Tree" and the "The Moon-Glo" know us and will not forget.

We have been heart-hungry for understanding and sincerity, and many times our silent call has been answered by members of our faculty and staff who passed this way before, and show a smoother path, an open door.

The chords of our beings are sensitive, and we would learn to pluck them gently, bringing the music within us into a harmony pleasing to the ear of God and man. Surely we can!

Restlessness and eagerness stare through our eyes. Constantly, keenly, we listen to a distant beckoning which demands that we follow bravely, willingly—keeping in step with "the march of time" until our somewhere goal is reached.
